-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers filed under 35 U.S.C. 119 (a)–(d) based on an application filed in PCT/NL97/00710 on 12/18/97. Applicant has not complied with the requirements of 37 CFR 1.63(c), since the application data sheet does not acknowledge the filing of any foreign application. A new application data sheet is required in the body of which the present application should be identified by application number and filing date.

Please either submit a new application data sheet or a request for a corrected filing receipt which includes the foreign priority claim.

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claim Rejections – 35 USC § 112

Claim 23 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 23 appears from the preamble to have two components, that is a soup and the meat product of claim 16. However, the body of the claim appears to have only one component, the meat product of claim 16.

In claim 23, what is a biscuit dried granule? This does not appear to be a term of food art. Also, in a Markush group, the last two items should be separated by “and” not “or”.

Claim Rejections – 35 USC § 102

Claims 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Yamamoto et al. [U] or Molnar et al. [V].

The claims are directed to a meat product consisting of in vitro produced animal cells in a three dimensional form, free of fat, tendon, bone, gristle, wherein the cells are selected from muscle, stem or somite cells, and wherein the product is suitable for animal or human consumption.

Yamamoto et al. disclose smooth muscle cells produced in vitro in a three dimensional form. The product has not been cultured with antibiotics. (See page 13, Materials and Methods) and is, thus, suitable for animal/human consumption.

Molnar et al. disclose skeletal muscle cells in a three dimensional form which have not been cultured with antibiotics (page 387, Materials and Methods) and is, thus, suitable for animal/human consumption.

Claim Rejections – 35 USC § 103

Claim 22 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yamamoto et al. [U] or Molnar et al. [V].

Claim 22 is directed to a mass limitation of the cultured muscle cell product.

Neither Yamamoto et al. nor Molnar et al. disclose any limitations to the potential scale of the process or the amount of product produced. Changes in the size of a product where the product would not perform differently the prior art is not sufficient to overcome the prior art. See MPEP 2144.04 IV. A.

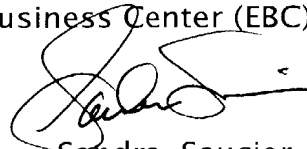

Although the use to which the product may be put in the prior art is not the same use as the instant use, the product AS CLAIMED is not distinct from the product AS DISCLOSED in the prior art. Please note the instant claims are product claims, not method claims.
